Open Call for art and curatorial projects for the 2016-17 season at Communication space Školská 28 gallery

Application deadline → September 25, 2015

Školská 28 gallery, run by the organization DEAI/Setkání, announces Open Call for art and curatorial exhibition projects designed for Školská 28 gallery during the 2016 - 17 season. Proposals for both one-person and group projects are welcome. The call targets proposals by both Czech and International artists.

The exhibition program is dedicated to the presentation of contemporary Czech and international artwork in visual, audio-visual and sound art media. More detailed information about the gallery's concepts, floor plan, and an archive of past exhibitions can be found on our official web site at www.skolska28.cz. Concepts for exhibition projects are not thematically restricted. We also welcome also site-specific proposals and other projects with social and community aspects, but proposals must respect the general esthetic inclinations of the gallery program and the functional limitations of the space.

Accepted projects will be scheduled for exhibition in the gallery during the 2016-17 season, beginning in March, 2016. In making the decision to accept and produce a proposal, the financial conditions of the Školská 28 gallery's organizational budget for the exhibition period is an overriding consideration. The accepted proposals will be announced on the website of Školská 28 gallery on or before November 30, 2015.
